

The Randolph County Board of Commissioners has called a special meeting for Monday, May 20, 2024 at 6:00 p.m., in the Randolph County Office Building, 725 McDowell Rd. First Floor Meeting Room A, Asheboro, to hold a Public Hearing on the following:

An appeal has been made by Rhonda Carreras for the Randleman Community on the decision of the Randolph County Planning Board to approve the rezoning of 1.89-acres at 5567 Old Greensboro Rd, (Tax ID 7766591509) from RA – Residential Agricultural District to CVOM-CD-Conventional Subdivision Overlay Mixed - Conditional District to allow a two-lot addition to an existing subdivision for Class B manufactured homes.

Citizens are invited to attend this meeting and will be given the opportunity to express their views. As a result, changes to the request could be made during this public hearing process.

Should you have any questions or comments, please contact the Planning and Zoning office at 336-318-6555 or via e-mail at planning@randolphcountync.gov.

Dana Crisco
Clerk to the Board of Commissioners